EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Stephen Hultquist on 13 June 2007.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the claims:

KLB
6/26/07

- Cancel claims 1-5 and 7-11.
- Rewrite claim 6: An isolated protein encoded by a nucleic acid molecule selected from the group consisting of:
 - a nucleic acid molecule encoding a protein comprising the amino acid sequence from position 20 or 53 to 558 of SEQ ID NO: 1;
 - b) a nucleic acid molecule comprising the sequence of SEQ ID NO: 5; and
 - c) a nucleic acid molecule, the sequence of which deviates from the nucleic acid sequences specified in (a) or (b) due to the degeneration of the genetic code, wherein said protein lacks a functional secretory signal sequence.

Reasons for Allowance

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The claims are drawn to a protein of SEQ ID No: 1 or a fragment thereof as encompassed by the claims that lacks a functional secretory signal sequence and pharmaceutical compositions thereof. The lack of a functional secretory signal sequence is a non-obvious variation over the art of record because it is difficult at best to predict where any signal sequence starts and ends. The prior art does not disclose the mature or functional polypeptide, only the predicted sequence of the full length protein, which thus includes a functional signal sequence. Thus, the claims are deemed novel and non-obvious and the allowed claims are 6 and 12-15.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
